

MURALS OF LA JOLLA

1. Roy McMakin, Favorite Color
7596 Eads Ave (2010)
2. John Baldessari, Brain/Cloud
(with Seascape and Palm Tree)
1250 Prospect Street - back side of building (2011)
3. Marcos Ramirez ERRE, Is All That it Proves
7744 Fay Avenue (2015)
4. Terry Allen, PLAYING LA JOLLA (for all it's worth)
7611 Fay Avenue (2015)
5. Byron Kim & Victoria Fu, Suns
Empress Hotel, 7766 Fay Avenue (2016)
6. Lorenzo Hurtado Segovia, Demos Gracias
2259 Avenida de la Playa (2016)
7. Heather Gwen Martin, Landing
7724 Girard Avenue - back of building - Drury Lane (2016)
8. Steven Hull, Man, Myth & Magic
7509 Girard Avenue (2017)
9. Kota Ezawa, Once Upon a Time in the West
7905 Herschel Avenue (2017)
10. Raul Guerrero, Raymond Chandler at the Whaling Bar
1162 Prospect Street (2018)
11. Sandra Cinto, Untitled
7835 Ivanhoe Avenue (2018)
12. Roman De Salvo, McCaim
5535 La Jolla Boulevard (2019)
13. Alex Katz, Bill 2
7540 Fay Avenue (2019)
14. Monique van Genderen, Paintings Are People Too
7661 Girard Avenue (2020)
15. Isaac Julien, ECLIPSE (PLAYTIME)
7569 Girard Avenue (2020)
16. Beatriz Milhazes, GAMBOA SEASONS IN LA JOLLA
1111 Prospect Street, back of building (2020)

Tours of the Murals of La Jolla are free and leave from the Athenaeum at 5:30 p.m. (Reservations are suggested. Please call the Athenaeum at 858-454-5872.)

The Athenaeum Music & Arts Library, administrator of Murals of La Jolla, is pleased to host walking tours of the murals. Tours start at the Athenaeum the last Wednesday of every month. Join fellow art enthusiasts and learn more about the artists and their artworks during a guided walking tour led by Murals of La Jolla Executive Director Lynda Forsha.

Sixteen murals are currently on view, and each tour features more than half of these. The route changes each time to accommodate new murals. It is a gentle walk around the village, but we ask participants to please wear comfortable shoes. Participants in the tour are responsible for their own safety.

Murals of La Jolla, founded by the La Jolla Community Foundation, is a project of the Athenaeum. The program demonstrates that commissioning artists to create works for public spaces brings energy and vitality to a community. Over the past ten years, large-scale artworks have appeared in a variety of locations throughout the village of La Jolla, some prominently displayed while others are tucked away in more discreet locations. To date, works by Terry Allen, John Baldessari, Mel Bochner, Mark Bradford, Kelsey Brookes, Sandra Cinto, Roman De Salvo, Kota Ezawa, Gajin Fujita, Anya Gallaccio, Robert Ginder, Raul Guerrero, Ann Hamilton, Steven Hull, Robert Irwin / Philipp Scholz Rittermann, Isaac Julien, Nina Katchadourian, Alex Katz, Byron Kim / Victoria Fu, Jean Lowe, Kim MacConnel, Heather Gwen Martin, Ryan McGinness, Roy McMakin, Beatriz Milhazes, Richard Allen Morris, Catherine Opie, Julian Opie, Marcos Ramirez ERRE, Lorenzo Hurtado Segovia, Fred Tomaselli, Monique van Genderen, and William Wegman have been installed throughout La Jolla.

If you would like to provide feedback regarding our tour, please visit Murals of La Jolla on TripAdvisor.

Look for the Murals of La Jolla on Instagram:

www.instagram.com/muralsoflajolla & www.instagram.com/athenaeummusicandarts